Jeremiah 29:11

Job Description: Biblical Counselor

Seeking a Part-time Lay or Certified Biblical Counselor + to minister to women in a small, Jesus Only, faith-based recovery program. This position is immersive into the lives of our clients and is not solely a one-on-one counselor.

Qualifications:

- Born again believer in Jesus Christ
- Current, Active member of local church (not EFBC) Pastor recommendation required
- Knowledgeable in scripture
- Able to Biblically lead someone to Christ
- Experience in Biblical counseling
- Substance abuse recovery experience
- Servant's heart that leads by example
- Good communication skills, written and verbal
- Efficient with computers/technology
- Non-smoker, including vaping
- Ability to climb stairs-AFAAH is located on 2nd level (no elevator available)
- Ability to say no in love, not an enabling personality

Duties include, but not limited to the following:

- One on One counseling sessions with clients
- Electronic documentation of counseling sessions
- Spending time with assigned clients mentoring them
- Attending scheduled Bible classes during the workday
- Report to director for daily expectation/communication prior to shift
- Other duties may be assigned based on the fluidity and nature of the ministry

AFAAH is a JESUS only ministry and does not believe in, nor incorporate secular psychology, use psychologists, or allow the use of psychotropic medications in the recovery program.

A Future and A Hope utilizes the counseling methods of Dr. Ab Abercrombie (former clinical psychologist, turned Jesus Only) His book "Wonderful Counselor" will be required reading as an employee.

The Bible is the main book used at AFAAH. Any other reading material must be authorized by the Pastor and director for its use with clients.
